Chleage Factory Burned. Chicago Factory Burned.
CHICAGO, July 27.—The Alston Manufacturing company's works, located at the corner of Currier and Crittenden streets, were destroyed by fire Thursday night at a loss of $50,000 to $100,000 to the building, stock and machinery, probably entirely covered by insurance. The building is a three story brick, fronting on Currier street, and running back on Crittenden street about 175 feet.

Brooklyn Building Trades. New York, July 27.—A general tie-up was ordered in the building trades in Brooklyn Friday morning, the out-come of the persistent strike of the roof-ers, who have been out now for nearly

Is Judge Lilly Afraid? FRANKFORT, Ky., July 27.—The state troops that were to have left here for Hazard, via Winchester, in order to protect Judge Lilly in holding court in Perry, did not start, but will leave Monday. 28th inst. Judge Lilly wrote to the state department asking that this postponement be made. Bome think that Judge Lilly is afraid to hold court in Perry, even with the assistance of the troops.

of the troops. Murdered by Tramps. GOSHEK, Ind., July 27.—A gang of tramps Thursday noon attacked the Lake Shore freight near Ligonier. In the melee Conductor Rock wood and Brake-man Frank Houk were shot and killed. The tramps cannot be found. The at-tack was for the purpose of looting. The Boycott Suggestion Less Favorably

The Boycott Suggestion Less Favorably Considered at New Orleans.

New Orleans, July 27.—The excitoment over the proposed boycott of northern products by the south if the force bill is passed seems to have subsided here very suddenly, little being said on the subject. Popular sentiment at first was decidedly in favor of the boycott, but it has been somewhat modified since in consequence of the expressions of opinion from prominent Democrats at Washington against the course proposed, however. The meeting at Atlanta is regarded as a set-back to the boycott movement as New Oorleans expected Atlanta to give it a good start. It is now very doubtful whether any action will be taken here in the matter.

Denounced by Boger Q. Mills. DALLAS, Tex., July 27.—Congressman Roger Q. Mills, in an interview Thurs-day night on the soveoting of the north suggested by the Atlanta Consti-tution and indexed by Gen. Gordon, should the force bill become a law,

"It would not only be a felly but a criminal felly to attempt such a project. It would injure us as much as the north, and the merchants and business men of the south rhould come out and denounce it."

Every business man in Dallas seen on the subject with one exception shares this view.

How Savannah is Working. SAVANNAH, Ga., July 27 .- There is no sentiment in a vanual, as far as can be ascertained, in favor of the scheme, in-dorsed by Governor Gordon to boycott dorsed is sinvernor Gordon to boycott the business of the north in the event of the passage of the force itil.

Savannah business men are trying to arouse a serit sent among the business men of the financiant the bill. Their board of trade has passed resolutions with the tend in view, and these resolutions, as a circular are being sent over the country.

Mobile Disappraves.

Mobile, Ala., July 27.—The chamber of commerce adopted a reply to the Atlanta beycott proposition. The chamber declared that it has no sympathy with the suggestion. It opposes the force bill, but relies upon friendly political and commercial relations with the people of the north and east to prevent its passage; and should it become a law the people of Mobile will obey its provisions and appeal to the enlightened sentiment of the country for its repeal.

By the End of the Present Congress Judge Holman Interviewed. WASHINGTON, July 27.-Judge Holman, of Indiana, whose long experience on the committee of appropriations has made him thoroughly and particularly capable of making an exact estimate, has completed a calculation of the expectable revenues and expenditures of the National government for the current fiscal year. The conclusion reached by him is that by the end of the present congress the surplus will have vanished, and the foundations will have been laid for the present that the surplus will have been laid for the present that the surplus will have been laid for the present that the surplus will have been laid for the present that the surplus will have been laid for the present the surplus will be a surplus wil congress the surplus will have vanished, and the foundations will have been laid for equally extravagant expanditures in the fature.

"But," says the judge, "with this unexampled extravagance of congress I hope for at least one other result. That is that the farmers, who bear the heaviest weight of government, both state and National, whose great industry has been for years and still is grievously oppressed by the permichans legislation of congress, while special interests loaded down with burdes," and, indeed, all laboring men, will begin to consider seriously the propriety of a judicious income tax, so that the great capital interests which control congress and interests and fosters special interests at the expense of the general welfare will be compelled to hear a just share of the burdens of the government.

"I tell you that whatever may be said."

"I tell you that whatever may be said against it, a judicious income tax, which would reach fairly and justly the great private estates which our class legislation has virtually created, would do a great deal in preventing extravagant appropriations and victous laws. When the wealth of the country bears a reasonable portion of the tax, which swells into nearly $40,090,000 a year, owners of great private estates will begin to see the value and merits of frugal and honest government." "I tell you that whatever may be said and honest government.

Killed at a Picate HOPKINSVILLE, Ky.. July 27.—News has been received from Lafayette, a village in this county, to the effect that Green Ledford, colored, was shot and killed by a constable, at a picnic there, Wednesday evening, while resisting arrest for selling liquors without license. Ledford fired upon the constable, wounding him in the leg, when that official returned the fire, killing Ledford instantly. Deceased served several years in the state penitentiary.

Cleakmakers' strike Euded. New York, July 27.—All the cloak-makers who have been on a strike since June 16 resumed work Friday morning in all the manufactories and shops. The manufacturers say now they will be in all the manufactories and shops. The manufacturers say now they will be able to meet all contracts. The manufacturers recognize the union and will discharge all memonion men in their employ, reserving the right, however, to retain the American girls who are working for them. About 6,000 men have returned to work.

At a Maine Funeral.

A Maine clergyman, who evidently is comewhat interested in the matter of funeral reform, writes: "Some time ago I attended a funeral which took place on the 'outskirts of civilization.' At the country, an invitation was given to the audience to 'view the remains.' After they had done so the relatives of the ded went forward to take their last look at the familiar features, and naturally were much affected, some of them sobbing and crying in an audible manner. When all were again scated the person who had charge of the fureral areas and remarked, 'We will now allow the friends few minutes to git control of their feelin's,' shen resumed his seat, while the silence was only broken by the sound of sighs and weeping, which gradually died away. It struck me as an innova-tion went the usual funeral customs, but no on there seemed at all surprised."-Lewiston Journal.

A Curious Phenomenon. A Curious Phenomenon.

A curious connection between colors and the auditory sense has been noted by Dr. Albertine. He has observed that persons suffering with color bilindness to certain lines have a corresponding deafness to certain musical notes. Special instances are given. For example, a person not having the sensation of red cannot distinguish the note sol, a person bilini to green cannot recognize re, nor can the notes be produced by the voice.
